Complimenting an Officer or Staff of Gladewater PD.

Gladewater Police Department

Doing the right things the right way for the right reasons.

How To Compliment An Officer or Staff:

The Gladewater Police Department is dedicated to providing the best police service possible to all citizens. Police officers are carefully selected and given the best training possible in order to provide this service. The Police Department would like to know when officers are providing that service in an exemplary manner. Therefore, the department has provided a way for citizens to commend officers for their actions which may have gone above or beyond their normal service.
